PLEASE EVALUATE:

A. THE COURSE AND THE MATERIALS (You may wish to comment on questions 1-3)

The paper on gender bias was a bit dated, but it presented a challenge to modernize the argument.

The topics were good templates, it was up to the students to make them something special.

B. THE INSTRUCTOR (You may wish to comment on questions 4-13)

Professor was incredibly helpful with all assignments + it was really evident that he cared about our success.

He went the extra mile in order to make that happen + provided us w/ countless useful resources to help us out.

C. SELF-EVALUATION. Please comment on the role you and your classmates played in making this class a success or failure (class participation, attendance, preparation, etc.).

The class as a whole, in full attendance, was at times chaotic + not conducive to constructive debate + conversation, but when direction + guidelines were given to the conversation things became much better. Professor really did the best a person could to in order to keep a good learning environment... I tried my best to offer only constructive questions, ideas + information.

Good grader, nicer guy.

C. SELF-EVALUATION. Please comment on the role you and your classmates played in making this class a success or failure (class participation, attendance, preparation, etc.).

PLEASE EVALUATE:

A. THE COURSE AND THE MATERIALS (You may wish to comment on questions 1-3)

I found the course was quite difficult. The 4 papers came fast upon one another. I do believe it could not fit much more in the quarter.

B. THE INSTRUCTOR (You may wish to comment on questions 4-13)

I believe Mr. Vetter did a great job of using our day to day assignments to build us to be prepared for each paper. This was my first college quarter (grad high school 4 years ago) and the instructor helped me in and out of class to get in stride and understand the material.

C. SELF-EVALUATION. Please comment on the role you and your classmates played in making this class a success or failure (class participation, attendance, preparation, etc.).

The class room was allowed to have an open feel. This helped promote thoughts and ideas so we could learn and build on each others I am proud of what I accomplished.

Allyn & Bacon is incredibly dull. Coursework was acceptable

Matt is awesome! He cared so much about the class and did really well coping with some students that challenged him as a teacher. He always answers questions, provokes intellectual conversation, and is available after hours. He also spends more time and effort grading papers, and I really appreciate his hard work. I would always recommend him as a teacher.
